MOST PERFECT MADE.
SAN FRANCISCO, JANUARY 24, 1890.
I have made a careful analysis of a sample of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder purchased by me in open market. The results of my analysis show that the Cream of Tartar used in its manufacture is pure, and that it does not contain any foreign substances, such as Alum, Ammonia, Lime or other impurities. I consider it to be pure and wholesome, and in every way a superior article.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

A Prisoner Makes a Full

Congressman Randall Rapidly
Approaching the End.

Randall's Condition.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Randall is said to be resting somewhat easier this morning, but his condition is unchanged. The patient is kept in a semi-unconscious condition by the use of opiates.
Randall continues to grow weaker, and the end is in sight, but no one can tell how much longer he may be able to continue the struggle for life. An hour may witness his last moments, or he may prolong them several days. He retains strength enough to move about in bed, but his life is now hardly more than a mere existence. Opiates are given him to make him easier, and most of the time he is only semi-conscious. He has not for two weeks been without fever. He takes nourishment well.
At 2 o'clock this afternoon there was no change worthy of note in his condition.

A Conference Now.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The Conference of the German Evangelical Church Delegates, held this morning, resulted in a row, and the police were called out. The crowd in front of the church became so dense that the street-cars were stopped.
Deacon Bergman of the Bishop Dubs faction, who were inside and held possession of the church, locked the doors and prevented the entrance of Bishop Escher and his followers. The followers of Escher finally withdrew and started a Conference of their own in a neighboring church.

Makes a Confession.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Emma Stark, a servant girl, who is under arrest on a charge of putting poison in the food of a family named Newland, which resulted in the death of Mr. and Mrs. Newland and the dangerous illness of their two children, has made a confession. She says she put "rough on rats" in the canned corn which she cooked for supper for the purpose of trying its strength, and not to kill the Newlands. She had been betrayed, and wanted to end her own life.

Testing New Engines.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The United States flagship Charleston, which came down from the Mare Island Navy Yard last evening, went to sea this morning. She will be given a six-hour's run to try her engines, for the benefit of the Inspection Board, and will return here this evening.

Sailed for Alaska.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The United States steamer Patterson sailed from here this morning for Alaska, having on board a party of explorers from New York whom she will land at Juneau. The Patterson will spend about seven months making surveys in the Northern Sea.

Liquor License Bill Beaten.

DES MOINES, April 10.—The Senate to-day rejected the liquor license bill by a vote of 21 to 29.

Congressional Matters.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—According to the arrangements made when the tariff bill was laid before the Ways and Means Committee by the Republican members ten days ago, it was called up for final discussion this morning. Without reading, a vote was taken upon the question of reporting it to the House with favorable recommendations just as it stands. The result was the report was ordered by a party vote, with the understanding that the bill is to be reported to the House on Monday.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the naval appropriation bill.

The House Committee on Pacific Railroads has entered upon the formal consideration of the Pacific bill providing for the settlement of the Government indebtedness of the Union and Central Pacific roads. The first five sections covering the case of the Union Pacific Company were approved with a few changes. The most important one was the reducing from three per cent. to one and a half per cent. to be paid by the company upon bonds falling due during the next five years. This was a partial concession to the wishes of the company, which desired a low rate of interest for the first ten years. Provision was made, however, for capitalizing the difference between a one and a half per cent rate and the full three per cent for five years, so the effect will be to reduce the amount of the payments for a time, but will make the final payments heavy enough to cover the difference. The committee also struck out the fourth clause relating to the Government guarantee of the bonds.

The President to-day sent to the Senate the nomination of Harvey Harrison, to be postmaster at Santa Paula, Cal.

SENATE.

Among the bills reported from committees and placed on the calendar were the following: Senate bill appropriating $2,348,000 for the improvement of the Columbia river, Oregon, the expenditures not to exceed $700,000 in one year; House bill to aid vessels disabled in waters co-terminous to the United States and Canada; Senate bill to revive the grade of Lieutenant-General of the army.

President pro tem Ingalls remarked that he was in error yesterday in allowing a motion to take up the Chinese enumeration bill while the Montana election case was undisposed of, either by being postponed, laid aside informally or other action.
Hale—"Then the chair rules that the Montana case is to proceed until completed?"
Ingalls—"Until completed."
Hale gave notice that as soon as the Montana matter was disposed of, he would ask the Senate to take up and complete the Chinese enumeration bill.

On a motion that the election case be again taken up, Call addressed the Senate in opposition to the report of the majority of the committee declaring that the Republican claimants, Saunders and Power, were entitled, upon the merits of the case, to seats in the Senate from Montana.

Winter Wheat and Rye.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The condition of winter wheat on the 1st of April, as reported by the statistician of the Department of Agriculture, averages 81 per cent. for the entire breadth, and the general average for rye is 92.8 per cent.

Quickest Maiden Voyage.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The steamer Majestic, which arrived here last night, made the quickest maiden passage from Queenstown on record; time, 6 days, 10 hours, 30 minutes.

Death of a Noted Italian.

LONDON, April 10.—Saffi, who with Mazzini and Armellini, formed a triumvirate in 1848, when the people drove Pius IX from Rome and established a republic, is dead.

ASTORIA, N. H., April 10.—Governor Goddell for several days has been growing perceptibly worse, and this morning is reported weaker.

Judicial Reform Needed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—A circular has just been issued by the California Bar Association which contains the address of ex-Judge Thomas P. Stoney, the President. President Stoney states that a well founded dissatisfaction with the condition of the law and with its mode of adjustment in the State prevails widely. He says there is a deplorable uncertainty as to what the law is, owing to the want of harmony in the opinions of the Justices composing the Supreme Court, and added to the condition of affairs there is no intolerable delay in obtaining justice in the ordinary course of judicial procedure. He declares that if the evils complained of are as serious as they are claimed to be, the only adequate remedy will be in a thorough reorganization of the system by amendment of the Constitution. The President announces that the executive committee deems it advisable to have a thorough discussion of the subject of judicial reform at the annual meeting of the Association, May 5th next, and invites the attention of all members to the subject.

The Lumpy-Jawed Cattle.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The long standing dispute between the city authorities and the State Board of Live Stock Commissioners regarding the disposal of lumpy-jawed cattle reached a crisis this morning when H. C. McChesney, a member of the Board, served a paper upon the Mayor, demanding protection for the removal of 19 head of cattle, condemned by the city health authorities as diseased, from the pen in which they were quartered in the stock yards. The city officials finally allowed the removal, being of the opinion it would be injudicious for the city to interfere with the State officers in the matter.

Went to the Bottom.

LONDON, April 10.—The steamer North Cambria, from Baltimore, arrived this morning at Dover with her bows stove in and her fire compartment full of water. She collided last night with the passenger steamer Avoca, from London for Dublin, and the Avoca was sunk. No lives were lost.

There were twelve passengers and thirteen members of the crew on the Avoca. Boats were lowered from the Cambria as soon as possible, and all were taken on board.

Found Guilty.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—It is announced at the War Department that the court-martial which tried Lieutenant Steele at Chicago for conduct unbecoming to an officer and gentleman in striking Del H. Wild, found him guilty and sentenced him to be reprimanded and be confined within the limits of this post for three months. The findings of the court were approved by General Schofield, and he will issue an order this afternoon, publicly reprimanding Lieutenant Steele.

The Murderous Whitecaps.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 10.—The great "whitecap" organization of Southern Indiana is about to get itself into trouble with the Grand Army of the Republic. Isaac White, a veteran who lives on a small farm at Leavenworth, was always considered an honest and worthy man. On Monday night the whitecaps took him out and lashed him into insensibility with switches. His condition is critical. His G. A. R. Post proposes to bring the perpetrators to justice.

Searching for Dead Infants.

LEWISTON (Me.), April 10.—It having been rumored that children have been born at the Lewiston Poor Farm, the ex-keeper of which is now serving a term in the county jail for cruelty to the inmates, search was made yesterday, and the bodies of two infants were found buried under a barn of the institution. Search will be made for others said to be buried there.

Chinese Enumeration Bill—Union Pacific Matters.

BOSTON, April 10.—The Boston Chamber of Commerce this afternoon earnestly endorsed the vigorous resolutions against the pending Chinese enumeration law adopted by the New York Chamber of Commerce.

The Union Pacific people here know nothing of the Wall-street movements in its stock. President Adams did not know yesterday of the advance in Union Pacific stock until informed of it about 5 p. m. by an inquiry as to its cause. He said that he knew nothing about it.

The annual report of the Union Pacific will be issued about April 20th. The only change now contemplated in the Directory is the election of a successor to the late David Dwyer. No plans for the further issue of bonds are now contemplated; neither is there any foundation for the report of a syndicate to purchase the Government's interest in the Union Pacific.

Killed With a Billiard Cue.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Jennie McGarvie, the white woman mysteriously found dead on Garfield Boulevard a few weeks ago, was killed by a blow from a billiard cue, and the man thought to be her murderer, Alec Rice, is locked up.

Rice says Lindsey killed her, but the police think Rice did the deed. Lindsey, W. O. Perry and George Gibson (colored) are also under arrest.

The Benefit of Protection.

Whether or not protection results in the development and extension of the industries of this country can be estimated from the fact that an English syndicate has purchased land here, and is preparing to erect upon it cotton mills that will involve the expenditure of $3,000,000, and which will give employment to 2,000 operatives. If the American market was accessible to English manufacturers this cotton plant would never be erected by English capital, but the goods it will produce would be made in England by English operatives. Referring to this investment the Manchester Mirror well says:

"When it is done it will furnish work for 2,000 operatives, whose wages will support directly at least 6,000 people. These people will eat bread and meat and vegetables and dairy products and fruit from American farms. They will wear clothing made in American shops from cloth manufactured in American mills. They will use American boots and shoes, furniture, crockery and iron and wooden ware. They will burn American coal and oil. They will employ American physicians, lawyers, teachers and preachers and read American books and papers. They will patronize American railroads, theaters and baseball games. They will buy American watches and jewelry, and in almost every conceivable way they will help to make a demand for the products of American skill, industry and enterprise. If there were no 'robber tariff,' if the duty on cotton cloth were abolished, they would do all this for England, while the output of the mill in which they earn their money would be sold here just the same as it will now." Does anybody think this a reason why we should have free trade?

THE Duke and Duchess of Marlborough and their affairs are getting to be as much of a nuisance as the daily dispatches about Professor Sullivan. Why a man who was a rake and a renegade all his life, and a woman who was willing to sell herself for a title, with all their fool acts, should be made the concern of the world every morning is one of the mysteries that no fellow can find out. Recently, we were informed that the Prince of Wales had snubbed the Duke. The people of this region, says the Salt Lake Tribune, would not care if the Prince of Wales would kill the Duke, and if such an operation would cause the dispatches regarding him to cease, this community would give a vote of thanks to the Prince.

The testimony thus far taken by the Congressional Committee regarding the sitting of immigrants at Castle Garden indicates that the work has been done in rather a perfunctory manner, although about one in six of the immigrants is rejected. Judging from the character of much of the foreign element now effecting an entrance into the country, a more rigid system of investigation would keep out a larger proportion.

In quelling the Vienna mob on Tuesday the troops made the initial mistake of firing blank cartridges, which resulted in encouraging the mob and rendering its suppression more difficult. The old frontier rule is sound in either individual or collective cases—never show a gun until it is time to use it, and then shoot effectively.

The Australian ballot bill has become a law in Maryland. It will be operative in Baltimore City and many counties. It seems to be about as much needed there now as in any State. If it can break up the Gorman machine it will vindicate itself before the people at large.

DR. KNAPPE, lately the German Consul at Apia, has been put on the retired list in consequence of his conduct at Samoa. This looks as though Germany really meant to do the fair thing. In his retirement in accordance with the policy of Bismarck or of the young Emperor.

THE bombardment of the Republican Postmaster at Elmwood, Tenn., shows that while in many parts of Tennessee business and industry have created a new South, the old lawlessness has not yet died out in some localities. The South is now making a bid for immigration and the importation of capital. Episodes like that at Elmwood will undo a great deal of canvassing and advertising.

TOTTINGS.

By eating your meals at the Arcade you will always feel that you have had full value for your money, and no matter how early or late you are, you can always find a hot meal.

Green peas, rhubarb, lettuce and asparagus are now in market, and string beans, strawberries and apricots will soon arrive, and E. C. Leadbetter will supply a large demand.

The Riverside Hotel having received its regular semi-annual renovation, is now as clean as silk from garret to cellar, and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain will see that it is kept in that condition.

A stranger visiting J. F. Becker's Chicago saloon in the middle of the day would be apt to mistake it for a well patronized restaurant, for he sees everybody enjoying a nice hot lunch.

C. J. Brookins carries the most complete line of musical instruments to be found on this side of the mountains; also the best guitar, violin and banjo strings.

C. A. Thurston's news depot is where you will find all the most popular weekly, monthly and quarterly magazines besides all the leading San Francisco and Sacramento daily papers.

Try some of W. T. Craig's Iowa corn-fed hams, shoulders and bacon, the finest ever brought to this market. He also carries a full line of breakfast meals which he is selling at bottom prices.

The Blessing of Strong Nerves.

Is recoverable, not by the use of mineral waters, but by a recourse of effective tonic treatment. Opium and the like should only be used as auxiliaries, and then as sparingly as possible. Vigorous nerves are quiet ones, and the most direct way to render them so is to reinforce the vital energies. That starting invigorator, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will be found all-sufficient for this purpose, since it entirely removes impediments to thorough digestion and assimilation of the food, so that the body is insured its due amount of nourishment, and consequently of stamina. Rheumatic tendencies and affections of the kidneys and bladder are also counteracted by the bitters, which is besides a pleasant medicinal stimulant, infinitely purer than the raw excipients of commerce which react injuriously upon the nervous system.

CATARH.

Catarh Disease—May Fever A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarh, catarh deafness and may fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of three cents in stamps to pay postage. A. H. Dixon & Son, 337 and 339 West King Street, Toronto, Canada.—Christian Advocate.

Happy Mothers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Elaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman of same place, says: "Find the Electric Bitter to be the best Liver and Kidney medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who has all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only six a bottle at Wm. Fininger's drug store."

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture, like perspiration causing intense itching when warm. This form, as well as blind, bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. See Druggists or mail order from Dr. Bosanko, Elaville, O. Sold by S. J. Hoaglinson.

Remarkable Recovery.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. We told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as ever was—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Wm. Fininger's Drug Store, large bottles six and ten.

Fryer's Asthma Cough Balsam—a combination of the purest Eucalypti, Verbena, Santal and Mullein, is guaranteed to cure coughs, colds and all lung diseases. (It contains no opium.) Price 25 cents. Sold by Wm. Fininger. The original and genuine Asthma preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

There is a time when the feeling of lassitude will overcome the most robust when the system craves pure blood to furnish the elements of health and strength. The best remedy for purifying the blood is Dr. J. H. McLean's Sanguifer.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

A Cheese Factory and Creamery Can be Made to Pay.

EDITOR GAZETTE: In your issue of the 18th ult., under the heading of "What Shall the Farmer Raise," I suppose reference was had to Washoe county, or more particularly, to Truckee Meadows. From the severity of the past winter in this State and adjoining States and Territories it is very probable that the number of beef cattle to be fed for the next three years will be much less than it has been for the past three; and, as the acreage in alfalfa is increasing every year, there is a probability of a large surplus of hay. As grain and vegetables beyond home consumption are not very profitable, I think it would be well for the farmers to consider the advisability of starting a cheese factory or a creamery, or both. If a factory were located north of Glendale and another near Huffer's, and every farmer would milk from ten to forty cows, one team could deliver the milk for four or five ranches, and the cost would be very small. Two thousand cows would give employment to seventy-five men the year round, and would consume in pasture and hay what would make about 12,000 tons of hay. There are millions of pounds of butter shipped to this coast every year, and as this is near the San Francisco market, it could be sold as fresh, first-edge butter, and would command top prices. Butter and cheese and condensed milk are crossing our doors. I may say, daily, and it appears to me that a co-operative effort in that direction could be made to pay, as we can raise twice the feed to the acre that our competitors can in the Eastern and Western States, and the skim milk or whey can be used to raise calves, pigs or chickens. The production of the two latter falls far short of the demand for home consumption. FARMER.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.

Meeting With Encouragement—The Program.

The young folks having in charge the arrangements for the High School social, to be given to-morrow evening at Armory Hall, are meeting with an encouraging amount of success in the way of selling tickets, as well as receiving substantial aid from many of our citizens, some of whom have kindly donated materials for ice cream, etc., and other things useful to be used at the hall. The program for the literary and musical part of the entertainment will occupy about an hour, beginning at 8 o'clock prompt, after which dancing and a social time generally will be the order of the evening. The program is as follows:

HUMBOLDT ITEMS.

Bridge and Dam Carried Away—Geese and Ducks Plentiful.

The Winnemucca Silver State of the 9th inst. says: Commissioner Riddell received a dispatch from Lovelock this morning, saying the county bridge at Big Meadows is being washed out by the high water. Roadmaster Molloy says the sloughs in the vicinity of the Bliss ranch, near Colvada, are literally alive with ducks, and farther up the river wild geese are numerous. Just about this time that ducks and geese on the Humboldt are fat enough for the table the game law goes into effect. Captain Marzen of Lovelock received a dispatch from S. R. Young last night, informing him that the Union Canal dam at Big Meadows and Marker Brother's flume were washed away by high water yesterday. The Union Canal dam was considered one of the most substantial in the river.

A Good State.

The rate of two dollars a hundred, granted to the wool shippers, through the Board of Trade, is made by Traffic Manager Gray, to apply to all shipments from a bale to a hundred carloads. This gives the smallest wool-grower as good a chance to get to the big markets as the largest, and it seems as if it left no cause for complaint.

One or two arrests were made.

White Men Employed.

Wednesday, says the Victoria, B. C. Colonist, all the Chinese hod-carriers and bricklayers' helpers employed on buildings being erected in Victoria were dismissed, and their places given to white men. This is due to the resolution of the Bricklayers' Union not to allow any of its members to work where the foreign and distasteful element was employed.

Becoming Educated.

The Philadelphia Press says: The presence of a Chinese leper in the Municipal Hospital is not a pleasant fact for the people of this town to contemplate. Nevertheless the former patrons of the patient, who was a washerman, will probably be willing to hunt up somebody else to do their laundry work.

Unsigned Bills.

New Yorkers Worried.

New York papers have discovered that Chicago is a frightfully unhealthy place. The sewerage system is bad, the water supply inadequate; diseases with all kinds of unpleasant adjectives ahead of their names prevail all the year round and will reach the utmost virulence in 1893.

An Extended Popularity.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Sanguifer has for many years been the most popular medicine for liver, living coughs and throat troubles.

"THE GREAT METROPOLIS."

Under the above headings this morning's Virginia Enterprise says: There was a good audience at Piper's Opera House last night, drawn both by the reputation of the play and to see old acquaintances, particularly Miss Eleanor Barry, who was once one of Nevada's most beautiful and popular society ladies.

The piece has the usual merits and demerits of the average exciting melodrama, where probability has to give place to interest. The shrewdest scene is well put on, and on a lower stage would be very effective. Most of the acting is passable and some is very strong. Mr. Morris, as Webster, is vigorous without being a rant. The bright lights of strong friendship and true love and the gloomy shadows of treacherous villainy are softened at intervals by the comicalities of an enterprising real estate agent, who seems to have no real reason for appearance in the story, except that the author wished to put him in for his own entertainment. In the end virtue is rewarded, vice is punished, and the good people are all made happy. Perhaps to point a moral and illustrate the utter detestation that all right-minded people should feel for wicked betrayers, the characters who are gathered on the stage when the villain shoots himself stand looking at each other with indifference as to whether he is badly hurt or only fatally injured. Nobody goes to view the remains, and the curtain drops, leaving the audience uncertain as to the nature of the wound. This is not exactly the usual way of the world, but to enforce an idea of poetic justice is doubtless allowable on the stage.

As a play abounding in intense situations, "The Great Metropolis," carefully presented as it is by this company, should draw good houses wherever it goes. An audience is not critical about trifling details when the space of anger or despair occupies the attention.

A HUMOROUS VIEW.

How A Business Burglar Was Benefitted.

A writer in the Texas Siftings takes a very humorous view of advertising. He concludes that in this age the man who does not advertise is doomed. Every style of advertising pays, but the greatest results are acquired from utilizing the advertising columns of a properly constructed journal. An inch advertising in a newspaper is worth a dozen on a fence. We never knew but one case in which advertising did not pay. It occurred in Chicago. A burglar overlooked eighty dollars in a bureau drawer, and the papers so announced. He returned the next night and did not only secured it, but a suit of clothes beside. The man who doesn't hang out his shingle and advertise, dies and leaves no sign. The right kind of eyes for business are not to be had for nothing. Paid-up papers help many a merchant "to raise the wind." Death and discontinuance of an advertisement are regarded as positive evidence of going out of business.

Literally Obeying the First Command.

A Mrs. Lowrie, wife of an Ohio farmer, has just given birth to four children, making nine that she has had at three births. All are living, and the last arrivals are both well-developed and healthy.

Should be Cared For.

Pio Pico, the last Mexican Governor of California, now nearly 90 years of age, is a pauper, and has been notified to leave his old homestead. Nothing remains of the great wealth this old man once possessed.

Duluth Products.

Duluth has sent to Boston, over the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Railroad, a train of fifteen cars built at Duluth out of Duluth iron and timber and laden with Duluth flour made out of Duluth wheat.

A Proposed Tax on Cigarette Dealers.

Maryland's Legislature is being petitioned to put a tax of $50 on cigarette dealers as a step toward the suppression of the insidious poisoning by cigarette-smoking.

A Clerical Idiot.

It was a Pittsburgh clergyman who told his congregation that the Tracy calamity was divine punishment for the President's refusal to mention Jesus Christ in his Thanksgiving proclamation.

Found His Mistake.

A workman at the Treadwell mine in Alaska attempted to thaw ice out of a drill hole with a hot iron, but put the iron into the wrong hole and found giant powder. He is in a critical condition.

Taxing Church Property.

A bill taxing church property has passed the Manitoba Legislature. The buildings and the land, to the amount of two acres on which they are situated will be exempt.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.

This was the last time that the question of the establishment of Thomas Price & Son, at 224 Sacramento St., S. F., as the leading chemists of the west, they were asked to settle the question as to what apparatus were in fact purely vegetable. We present their report. "We have made careful chemical analysis of several well known brands of apparatus, and have found them all to be of vegetable origin. As a result we are enabled to pronounce Joy's to be the only purely vegetable apparatus now on the market, which has come under our observation." Modern medicine has proven that all ordinary face eruptions are caused by indigestion and sluggish circulation, which call for vegetable alternatives, instead of mineral blood purifiers like iodine. The first to discard the old notions and proceed under the modern theory. Inures are the talk of the hour.

REMEMBERS GENERAL CROOK.

A Pit River Indian's Opinion of His Progress.

The Modoc Independent says: The other day some of our citizens were speaking of the death of General Crook in the presence of Tom Dickens, a famous Pit River Indian. Tom drew up a little nearer, and asked: "What you say? General Crook dead?" Being answered in the affirmative, he heaved a sigh, and said: "I recollect General Crook. Him putty good Injun fighter."

Twenty-five years ago the Pit Rivers were a bloodthirsty tribe of Indians, and it was General Crook who finally corralled them in a canyon about eighteen miles from Alturas and gave them such a chastising that they were glad to surrender and enter into peace negotiations. Tom Dickens is now about fifty years of age, and at that time was doubtless a bold young warrior, and probably took an active part in the battle. He is a brother told "Chip," who was then, and still is, Chief of the Pit Rivers, and with whom Crook made the treaty of peace. This treaty has been faithfully kept by the Indians, and since that memorable day they have entertained the profoundest respect for General Crook.

SCHOOL AND CHURCH.

The Methodist church will have a new university in Washington, D. C., if present plans are realized.

The Supreme Court of California has decided that colored children can not be excluded from the public schools of that State on account of their color.

The Alumni Association of Howard University, Washington, has assumed the support of a new chair in mathematics, to which one of their number has been elected, a young man of high attainment.

The building of the new Protestant church at Bethlehem, in Palestine, which was interrupted in 1888, has now been resumed by permission of the Sultan, at the special wish of the German Emperor.

Prof. Noah K. Davis, of the University of Virginia, says: "Those who speak of State universities as if they were necessarily or even generally pervaded by skepticism and irreligion remind me of sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. Simply, is not true. The opposite is more nearly true."

The attendance at Marietta College, Marietta, O., is increasing yearly. There are ninety-five in the college classes—more than ever before in the fifty-four years of its history. Fifty-six are members of churches, of whom twenty-two are looking to the ministry. One is a Persian, fitting to teach in the mission college. Two Indians, active, religious men, are fitting for higher service among their people.

A church which desired to get rid of an aged pastor who had long served it held a meeting to consider the matter. After considerable discussion, one of the deacons who had hitherto said nothing, getting impatient, arose and said: "Mr. Cheerman, I move that Mr. H.—'s usefulness in this 'ere field come to an end arter to-night." The motion was carried. Churches sometimes bring a pastor's "usefulness to an end" without a formal vote. It is easily done when a few people set themselves to it.—Christian Inquirer.

Amherst College is making a move which will be watched with great interest by the other colleges. The students have placed their athletics in the hands of an advisory board consisting of ten members, made up of the professors of physical education; the presidents of the base ball, foot ball and athletic associations; three alumni not members of the faculty and Frederick B. Pratt, The two members of the faculty and three alumni members will be appointed by the college senate. The athletic policy of the college and the finances connected therewith will be completely controlled by the new board.

One feature which the city and the school system should have and which both need quite as much as they do new schools, is a school building which shall be the center and distributing point of all information on school matters. As there is no city in the country which has so great a number of pupils, teachers and school buildings, there is also no large city which has more inadequate means of reaching, directing or accommodating its teachers; of furnishing them with desired information on school subjects, of instructing them in the history of education itself, an instruction which has become part of the necessary studies of the teacher today who desires to become fully abreast with the latest educational movements.—School.

IN THE CHURCH-YARD.

A Bit of Reality Calculated to Bring Tears

A low mound, with wooden slabs resting away under its brier-grown turf, a baby form long since a handful of dust. Old—old almost as the burying-ground in which the village dead were sleeping—it had lain beneath sunshine and shadow, while the years crept by unnumbered.

Often I had passed it there in its quiet corner; no other graves were nigh it, and tangled weeds grew rank above the forgotten dust. The white head-stones of many a quiet sleeper marked life's last mile-post, on the slopes above it, but here only a wooden slab crumbled and crumbled away.

One day a new mound, scarcely so long, was heaped beside it, and in the calm, October sunshine I read in pencil, on the card above it, the one word—"Lola."

The named, and the nameless. Innocent alike before the great bar of judgment, and, alike, hushed forever in the everlasting arms. As I stood above these quiet mounds, the old sexton, with pick and spade, came toward me.

"It hurts me to do it, sir," he said, "me as has babies of my own at home, but a gen'l'man as has bought the lot says as how the little 'un must be took away," and he rubbed the sleeve of a worn jacket across his eyes.

"It pears to me," he continued, "that if it had been one of my own babies"—pointing to the new mound—"I'd kinder have wanted the little 'un to keep company—it wouldn't have seemed so lone-some like, an'—an'—it couldn't have done no harm," and the old man's voice grew husky.

"Where do I move the wee 'un?—down to 'other side, where the graves is free," he replied in answer to my question; "there's many of 'em there, air, older than I can remember, and I think, sometimes, I'd like to be buried there myself. Sometimes I wonder if these great stones mightn't be in the way when the dead rise again at His comin'."

And thus volubly the old man prattled on, and his spade sunk deeper and deeper, and the heap of brown earth grew larger.

It was only a rude box, very, very small, but reverently I followed it to that portion of the church-yard where the pauper dead lay sleeping. Into a shallow grave we lowered the nameless dust, and on the little mound we laid an autumn garland in memory of Him, all-pitying, who forbade not such as these unto His presence.

And you're safe in that fold, wee sleeper; hands may not break your rest. Nameless, sleep on with the unknown dead; brier and weed grow rank above you, but over all is God's blue sky and sunshine.—Detroit Free Press.

MISCELLANECUS NOTES.

The costliest cigars sold in New York are the big Henry Clays from Havana, which come in a fine cabinet box and are wrapped in gold foil. There are only twenty-five in a box, and they retail at $1.40 each.

HENRY M. STANLEY estimates the distance which he traveled in the interior of Africa at about 5,400 miles, of which all but about 1,000 miles were on foot. The entire cost of the expedition will not, he says, exceed $150,000.

The latest English fancy is to wear with a tailor-made gown a small, fancy watch of iron, oxidized to resemble iron, with elaborate gold initials, fastened by a brooch on the left front of the bodice, as a medal or other decoration would be worn.

BECAUSE some plants are partial to moisture it does not indicate that such plants must be grown in a wet soil. There is quite a difference between wet, undrained soil and soil that retains only sufficient moisture to be of advantage to the crop.

In a library in Paris, the largest in the world, is a Chinese chart of the heavens made about six hundred years before Christ. In this chart 1,460 stars are found to be correctly inserted as corroborated by the scientists of the present day.

At Baku, Russia, the waiters have formed a co-operative union which has procured its own silver, linen and other table accessories, and does catering of every sort at prices diminished by the usual profit of the hotel-keeper, caterer or other middle-men.

GROUND bone is a fertilizer that benefits nearly all crops; can be applied at all seasons of the year; will not injure any tree or plant; is permanent and lasting in its effects, and is the cheapest form of fertilizer in proportion to the benefit it imparts that can be used.

A CURTAIN woman at St. Joseph, Mo., who had been forbidden by her father to marry the man of her choice, managed to become bridemaid at a wedding where her lover was "also best man." At the conclusion of the ceremony they advanced and were pronounced man and wife before the girl's father or mother could interfere.

ALTHOUGH the sweet pea is not a lawn plant, and therefore not adapted for our purpose in this connection, it is on account of its delicate perfume a necessity for a complete summer bouquet. Plant in the garden in rows in the same manner as the edible pea, using very tall fine-twigged bushes for brush. In favorable seasons this plant will often attain a height of six feet.

ALTHOUGH not a brilliant flower, the sweet mignonette requires a place in the flower border; some of the new varieties grow very large heads of bloom and are exquisitely fragrant. In propagating this plant from seed a different treatment from the other annuals is necessary. The seeds should be sown sparsely, the plants allowed to grow to their full transplanting size in the propagating box, from which they should be removed direct to the border with care, disturbing the roots as little as may be possible.

VIOLET INK is rather the fashion at present. One of the novelties in stationery is paper of a delicate shade of pink on one side and primrose on the other. This style is called "sub rosa," and is supposed to be especially appropriate for "rosebuds." Dull velvet-grey, or "moonlight," and goblin-grey note paper, with the initials stamped upon it in dead white, is much used for correspondence.

WORK of gilt threads, thrown in, flimsy way upon a gray note sheet, is unique, though but an evolution of a design of last season.

ELZA L. STEVENS, of Washington, D. C., who recently died at Asbury Park, N. J., was the chief clerk of the Indian Department for nearly thirty years, and was the originator of the present Indian school system. The pupils in the Indian schools always called him "Father Stevens." He was one of the most prominent members of the Masonic order in the United States, and had attained the thirty-third degree. It is said that he sat in Masonic lodges with more Presidents of the United States than any Mason now living. He raised President Garfield to knighthood.

STRANGE TO RELATE.

A MAN who recently fell ill in Warsaw begged his doctor to accept an old lottery ticket in place of fee, and the doctor did so. The ticket drew $40,000.

A CURIOUS use has been found for the phonograph. It was produced at the funeral of a clergyman in order that a sermon of the deceased upon himself might be heard by the mourners.

An actress in New York has entered a claim that a particular pose, which she assumed while being photographed "in all her own," and that no other actress or photographer has the right to appropriate such pose.

Mrs. CONWAY, an aged Irish woman of Atlanta, Ga., put on mourning in honor of Jefferson Davis and Henry W. Grady. Her dresses were made from the calico used in draping some of the city windows when those gentlemen died.

It very seldom happens that bees will make their honey and comb in the open air, but such a case has been found in an orange grove southeast of Orlando, Fla., where a swarm of bees made a large piece of honey on the limb of an orange tree.

A TEXAN advertised that he would be at Murfreesboro, Tenn., one day lately, to buy all the hens he could get at twenty-five cents apiece. He came along in a poultry car capable of holding 5,000, and he had to telegraph for another, as there were 10,000 pullets waiting for him.

A St. Louis woman identified a body in the morgue as that of her husband, from whom she had been separated for several years, and gave it an expensive funeral. Her husband has since turned up alive and well, and, having learned that his wife had buried him in style, called on her to express his thanks.

CHARLES NESS, of Searsmont, Me., who was partially blind for twenty-five years from a bad fall received during the war, fell while carrying a pail of milk into the house one day lately, and again struck the back of his head heavily. Strange to say, his eyesight has been restored, and now he can see to read as well as before the first accident.

ONE of the industries of New York is the insurance of babies. The sum paid is usually five cents a week on each child. The system is productive of good in so far that it assures very poor people against being put to extremes in the event of a death in the family. On the other hand, the possible and even probable abuses are obvious, for it gives heartless parents a direct personal interest in the death of one who is entirely at their mercy.

In New York a life insurance company has lent $130,000 to a church and the church has had the lives of a number of its members insured in favor of itself. The life insurance company agrees, every time one of the members who is thus insured dies, it will reduce the debt of the church by the amount of his policy. Every time the church has a funeral of one of these it turns off a slice of debt; in other words, members and debt disappear together.

An old convict recently released from the Auburn penitentiary, boasts of the fact that he was conducted to that institution by Grover Cleveland. He was convicted of murder and sentenced to imprisonment for life at Buffalo in 1871. "Grover Cleveland was Sheriff at the time of my sentence," he says, "and instead of sending a deputy to Auburn with me he went himself, saying that he had never been in the State prison and wanted to improve the opportunity. I believe I am the only man in the world who has been escorted to prison by a President of the United States. The very last paper Mr. Cleveland signed his name to at Albany as Governor was my pardon, to take effect March 5, 1890, and here I am."

Mrs. CAROLINE DONOVAN, who has given $100,000 to John Hopkins University and made many other important public bequests, was such an admirer of General R. E. Lee that at the time of his death she was just on the point of giving him $100,000.

TRUE practical philosophy makes the most of little pleasures, and the most of every thing.

HARSH counsels have no effect; they are like hammers which are always repulsed by the anvil.

We gain nothing by falsehood, but the disadvantage of not being believed when we speak the truth.

HALF the things which we groan over to-night will right themselves before to-morrow night, if we let them alone.

Good nature, like a bee, collects honey from every herb. Ill-nature, like a spider, sucks poison from the sweetest flower.

Don't waste your ammunition on dead ducks. Many a man gets into a wrangle with someone who is utterly beneath notice.

It was long since discovered that though it is easy to crown an ass with laurel leaves, yet his ears will always spoil the effect.

Those who would render their charities useful should diffuse them judiciously. He who would have a good crop must sow with his hand and not pour out of the sack into one heap.

THE chief secret of comfort lies in no suffering trifles to vex us, and in prudently cultivating undergrowth of small pleasures, since very few great ones, alas! are let on long leases.

If a man knew as many odd, queer and mean things about others as he must know about himself, would he be apt to speak to them without considerable wear and tear of conscience?

REVERIES may come, even to the rich, and when riches take to themselves wings, practical knowledge of practical life is by far more felicitous to all concerned than that ignorance which unfits one for the prosaic struggle for existence.

Liver Complaint—Biliousness. The chief symptoms of this disease are depression of spirits, foul, coated tongue, bad breath, morose, disagreeable breath, dry skin, with blotches and eruptions, salivary complexion and yellow eyes, tired, aching shoulders, dull pain in right side, faintness, dizziness and irregular bowels. This complaint in all of its forms can be readily cured by taking Dr. Gunn's Improving Liver and Bowel Syrup, and a liver-sickening spell of sickness will often be warded off by their use. Sold at 25c. a box by J. H. Houghton.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MABEL'S GRANDMA.

"The world is even as we take it. And life, dear child, is what we make it." This was the sentiment of an old lady to her grandchild Mabel. And many a Mabel has found it to be true, and she has taken care of her health. She keeps on hand a supply of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and so is not troubled with those wasting disease weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations and functional irregularities that so many women endure. It is the only medicine for women's ailments, and a positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers and faithfully carried out for many years. "Favorite Prescription" is a legitimate medicine, not a beverage. Contains no alcohol to irritate; no strychnine or sugar to derange digestion. As peculiar in its remedial results as in its composition. As a powerful invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, particularly to the womb and its appendages. For feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being in essence an appealing cordial and restorative tonic, or strength-giver.
